Willfully downplaying the severity of COVID-19, disregarding the safety of our citizens by ignoring science, and fighting every attempt the Governor makes to slow the spread, has helped make Wisconsin the Nation's new COVID-19 hotspot, says Karl Jaeger.

MARINETTE, WI - After months and months of John Nygren and our State Legislature downplaying the severity of COVID-19, willfully disregarding the safety of our citizens by ignoring science, and actively fighting every attempt the Governor has made to slow the spread of this virus, Wisconsin is quickly becoming the Nation's COVID-19 hotspot.

The GOP has not done a single thing to slow the spread of COVID-19. In fact, they have fought the Governor at every step—filing multiple lawsuits to end public health orders and issuing celebratory press releases with each of their hollow “victories”.

House Bill 1100, which would have required health care workers to be vaccinated, was introduced in the Wisconsin State Assembly on February 10, 2021. The bill was sponsored by Rep. Scott Kessler (D-Wisconsin) and Rep. Mark L. Miller (D-Wisconsin). The bill was passed by the Assembly on February 10, 2021, but it was not passed by the Senate. The bill was vetoed by Governor Tony Evers on February 10, 2021.

The bill was vetoed by Governor Tony Evers on February 10, 2021. The bill was vetoed because it was not in the best interests of the state. The bill was vetoed because it was not in the best interests of the state. The bill was vetoed because it was not in the best interests of the state.
