MADISON - Next Tuesday, we have an election for state school superintendent, and we've examined the money that's been flowing into the race.

Here's our report on the biggest individual contributors to the candidates:

And here's our report on the special interest groups that are throwing around in that contest and in the special elections:

This week, we also came up with a final tally on the record-breaking amount of money that was spent in the legislative races here in Wisconsin last year:

Today, my colleague Beverly Speer and I met with State Sen. Melissa Agard (formerly Sargent) to work on bills to limit this big money in our politics and to empower everyday Wisconsinites.

We all need to have an equal voice in our democracy!

Best,
