MADISON – Recently, a number of legislative Republicans have threatened to impeach Justice Protasiewicz. The threats come after Justice Protasiewicz overwhelmingly defeated conservative Dan Kelly in the April election and before the new justice has even heard a court case from the bench. State Senator Melissa Agard (D-Madison) released the following statement:

“Legislative Republicans will jump over any hurdle to usurp the will of the majority. Remember, voters elected Justice Protasiewicz by a deafening margin of over 10 percentage points in April and impeaching her with no basis is an insult to voters everywhere. Considering impeachment mere weeks after Justice Protasiewicz has been sworn-in is utterly absurd.

At the time of the 2023 Wisconsin Supreme Court election, Justice Anne C. Bradley was the only Republican on the court. She was elected to the court in 2019 and re-elected in 2023. She is currently serving as the Chief Justice of the Wisconsin Supreme Court. Justice Bradley has been a vocal supporter of the Republican Party and has been involved in several high-profile cases, including the 2020 election dispute. She has also been a target of criticism from Democrats and has been accused of bias. In 2023, she was elected to the court for a second term, defeating her Democratic opponent, Justice Bradley. The election was a significant victory for the Republican Party, as it secured a majority on the court. Justice Bradley's re-election has been seen as a sign of the party's growing influence in Wisconsin politics. She is expected to continue to play a key role in the court's decisions in the coming years.
