

Evers to Tour Wisconsin Following State of the State Address

Written by GBP Staff

Wednesday, 23 January 2019 16:21 - Last Updated Saturday, 02 March 2019 13:25

MADISON - Following his first State of the State address to the people, Governor Tony Evers will travel the state this week to share with Wisconsinites his plans to build an economy that works for all of us, grow healthier communities, invest in our kids and our schools, and find a sustainable solution for better roads and infrastructure.

Today, January 23rd, the governor will visit western Wisconsin.

The events below are open to members of the media.

Wednesday, January 23rd, 2019

Marshfield

WHO: Governor Tony Evers

WHAT: Media Availability at Marshfield Clinic--Eau Claire Center

WHEN: 10:30 a.m.

Evers to Tour Wisconsin Following State of the State Address

Written by GBP Staff

Wednesday, 23 January 2019 16:21 - Last Updated Saturday, 02 March 2019 13:25

WHERE: 2310 Craig Rd, Eau Claire, WI 54701

Chippewa Valley

WHO: Governor Tony Evers

WHAT: Tour of Chippewa Valley Technical College

WHEN: Wednesday, January 23rd, 2019; 11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

WHERE: 620 W Clairemont Ave, Eau Claire, WI 54701

Viroqua

WHO: Governor Tony Evers

WHAT: Viroqua Main Street walk

Evers to Tour Wisconsin Following State of the State Address

Written by GBP Staff

Wednesday, 23 January 2019 16:21 - Last Updated Saturday, 02 March 2019 13:25

WHEN: Wednesday, January 23rd, 2019; 3:15-4:15p.m.

WHERE: Viroqua Visitor Center, 201 North Main Street, Viroqua, WI 54665