

First Responder of the Year: Green Bay Police Lieutenant Jeff Engelbrecht

Written by Wisconsin Assembly Democrats
Tuesday, 01 October 2019 09:37 -

Hometown Hero is one of the Green Bay Police Department's premier tactical trainers, providing trainings to schools, businesses, non-profits, and other concerned organizations.

GREEN BAY – Representative Staush Gruszynski (D-Green Bay) announced Monday that Lieutenant Jeff Engelbrecht will be honored as the 90th Assembly District First Responder of the Year at a Hometown Hero ceremony to be held during the floor session of the State Assembly on October 10th, 2019.

“Lt. Engelbrecht is deeply committed to enhancing public safety in Green Bay, and I am honored to have the opportunity to recognize his service to our community with a Hometown Hero Award,” Gruszynski said. “I am thankful for Lt. Engelbrecht’s commitment to responding to the serious concerns that have emerged locally in the wake of high-profile mass shooting tragedies throughout the United States.”-

Lt. Engelbrecht is one of the Green Bay Police Department’s premier tactical trainers, providing trainings to schools, businesses, non-profits, and other concerned organizations in Greater Green Bay. He is a 23 year veteran of the department. Since 2018, Lt. Engelbrecht has provided trainings on 67 occasions to more than 1,900 community members.

First Responder of the Year: Green Bay Police Lieutenant Jeff Engelbrecht

Written by Wisconsin Assembly Democrats

Tuesday, 01 October 2019 09:37 -

“I would like to thank Representative Gruszynski for recognizing the outstanding work and dedication of Green Bay Police Lieutenant Jeff Engelbrecht. Lt. Engelbrecht’s leadership and lifelong commitment to the safety of our community serve as an example to all of us in law enforcement. I am proud of the great work he has done, and continues to do every day for citizens in Green Bay and all of Wisconsin,” said Green Bay Police Chief Andrew Smith.