Green Bay, WI - Green Bay Metro staff spent this week implementing protective practices which would minimize risk of exposure to COVID-19 for riders and employees. Effective Monday, March 23, 2020, Green Bay Metro will provide limited transit services. Because these services are limited, the Green Bay Transit Commission has approved free fares until further notice.

Green Bay Metro expects riders to:

--Take only essential trips; those that are absolutely necessary

--Stay home if you are sick

--Use the rear door only (unless using a mobility device)

--Stay behind the tape, and do not approach the operator (bus driver)

--Stay six feet away from other people, whether showing symptoms or not (social distancing)

Bus information for riders:

--There will be a limit of six passengers per bus (seats have been blocked off to limit passengers)

--The buses will operate Monday through Friday, 6:45 am to 6:45 pm
