

Democrats plan Saturday vote to prop up Postal Service

Written by The Hill Press

Monday, 17 August 2020 12:21 -

Move comes days after the Postal Service warned states it might not be able to deliver ballots to election offices in time to be counted.

WASHINGTON, DC - House Democrats will call the chamber back to Washington to vote Saturday on legislation to block recently implemented cost-cutting measures at the U.S. Postal Service — and ensure the agency can handle a potential flood of mail-in ballots around November's elections.

Read the developing report here