COVID-19 testing sites now open at the Resch Center and Casa ALBA Melanie to allow anyone who lives or works in Brown County to be tested.

Green Bay, WI - Brown County announced yesterday that testing at the two community testing sites in Green Bay will be extended through Friday, May 22. In addition, starting tomorrow, Wednesday, May 13, testing will be expanded to allow anyone who lives or works in Brown County to be tested.

You do not have to show any signs of COVID-19 to be tested and everyone, whether considered an essential worker or not, can schedule an appointment for the free testing.

The testing sites, staffed by the Wisconsin Army National Guard and area healthcare workers, are located at the Resch Center (820 Armed Forces Dr. / enter on Lombardi Ave.) and in the parking lot outside Casa ALBA Melanie (314 So. Madison St.)

The test sites are open 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday through Friday, May 22. The testing is free, with results expected in 5 to 7 days.

Appointments for the COVID-19 testing can be made online anytime at StayHealthyBC.com or via telephone through 2-1-1, Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
