As evidence of the President's campaign team colluding with a hostile foreign government to influence our elections grows, Wisconsin Republicans have joined their national leaders in looking the other way. Gov. Walker hasn't made any public statement on the unfolding scandal.

MADISON - This week, we learned about a June 2016 meeting between Donald Trump Jr., Jared Kushner

, Paul Manafort

and a

Russian lawyer

who sought to pass on allegedly incriminating information about Hillary Clinton to the Trump campaign. Yet, Gov.

Scott Walker

has remained silent on this troubling revelation.

Democrats have condemned the Trump campaign for their willingness to accept the help of a hostile foreign government to sway the election and called for the President, his family, and his campaign team to come clean about their contacts with Russia. At both the state and the federal level, Democrats have supported an investigation to figure out the truth about Russia's meddling to ensure that it never happens again and allow lawmakers to get back to work creating good-paying jobs, improving access to health care, and creating educational opportunities for all Americans.
