

Former Brown County Supervisor starts new job in Madison, is honored to represent the people of Green Bay.

MADISON – State Representative Staush Gruszynski (D-Green Bay) was inaugurated into office today as the State Representative for Wisconsin's 90th Assembly District. Rep. Gruszynski was elected to serve the 90th District, which includes much of the City of Green Bay, in November 2018.

"I am humbled and honored to have the opportunity to represent the people of Green Bay in the State Assembly. I look forward to working with my legislative colleagues and Governor Tony Evers to advance common-sense policies that strengthen public education opportunities, improve access to healthcare, fix our roads, and restore needed protections for Wisconsin's environment and natural resources. The 2019-2020 legislative session presents an opportunity to make Wisconsin a better place to live, build a career, and raise a family, and I can't wait to get started," Gruszynski said.

Gruszynski also announced that he will serve on the following Assembly committees: the Committee on Forestry, Parks and Outdoor Recreation, the Committee on Local Government, the Committee on Sporting Heritage, the Committee on Tourism, and the Committee on Rural Development.
