After years of obediently voting to confirm extremist and hyper-partisan judges dead set on rolling back the clock on hard-fought freedoms, Ron Johnson once again put his self-serving agenda before the people of Wisconsin say Democrats.

MADISON, Wis. – Just one year after being sworn into office, President Biden fulfilled his promise of nominating the first Black woman to the Supreme Court – and Thursday, Judge Ketanji Brown Jackson has made history with her confirmation as our next justice. After a rigorous confirmation process rife with Republican obstruction and blatant contempt, it's more clear than ever that Judge Jackson will be a superb jurist on the nation's highest court.

Despite the public's broad bipartisan support for Judge Jackson, with Republican senators themselves noting her astute qualifications and "her demonstrated judicial independence," Ron Johnson voted against confirming one of the most qualified candidates ever nominated to the U.S. Supreme Court.

In response, Democratic Party of Wisconsin Chair Ben Wikler released the following statement:

WisDems on Historic Ketanji Brown Jackson Appointment and Ron Johnson's Unacceptable Opposition
