

Wisconsin Democracy Campaign '5 Reasons to Recount in Wis!'

Written by Matt Rothschild, Wisconsin Democracy Campaign

Tuesday, 29 November 2016 17:22 - Last Updated Wednesday, 30 November 2016 10:52

The recount is important for five reasons, (1) it was close, (2) late deductions were from Trump, (3) Outagamie County had more people voting than voters, (4) Trump's wild charge on illegal voters, and (5) it's always good to test the machinery.

MADISON - I'm glad there's going to be a recount here in Wisconsin.

Here's why:

Five valid reasons for the Wisconsin presidential recount

Requiring an accurate count is a bare minimum for our democracy.

Another bare minimum is respect for the Fourth Amendment. But the Wisconsin Supreme Court, sharply and oddly divided, just took another whack at it, as I explain here:

Wisconsin Supreme Court shreds 4th amendment

One more thing: Today is Giving Tuesday, when people all across the country are encouraged to make charitable online donations. So I'm urging you to make a tax-deductible donation right now to the Wisconsin Democracy Campaign. It's easy: All you have to do is click here

Or you could mail it in the old-fashioned way, with a check made out to the Wisconsin Democracy Campaign at 203 S. Paterson St., Madison WI 53703.

We really appreciate your support!

Matt Rothschild
Executive Director
rothschild@wisdc.org

Wisconsin Democracy Campaign '5 Reasons to Recount in Wis!'

Written by Matt Rothschild, Wisconsin Democracy Campaign

Tuesday, 29 November 2016 17:22 - Last Updated Wednesday, 30 November 2016 10:52

P.S. With Donald Trump saying people who burn the American flag should be jailed or lose their citizenship, the risk of fascism is rising right here at home. For a thoughtful response to this threat, please read this column by Yale professor Tim Snyder.