

All about the latest MU Law poll, with Foxconn and more, the GOP's plan to shower Kimberly Clark with over $100 million, Dave Hansen and Jimmy Anderson plan to stop big pharma from price gouging.

STATEWIDE - We discuss the latest MU Law poll, including: (1) The limits of polling and the recent failings of the MU poll; (2) Foxconn is unpopular and a possible Achilles heel for Gov. Walker and Republicans if Democrats can effectively articulate an alternative vision; (3) Universal background checks on guns and comprehensive immigration reform are very popular; (4) Trump and Walker remain popular with Republicans which elevates their overall favorability ratings; (5) Supreme Court, Democratic Gubernatorial and GOP Senate candidates remain unknown by most voters.

We also talk about Gov. Walker and the GOP's plan to shower Kimberly Clark with over $100 million and review new legislation Citizen Action introduced this week with Sen. Dave Hansen and Rep. Jimmy Anderson to stop big pharma from price gouging.
