Talk of Trump and the political implications of the 2018 election on healthcare and the Supreme Court. Next Milwaukee County Board Supervisor, Sylvia Ortiz-Velez, will talk about her resolution opposing Trump's zero tolerance immigration policy. Finally, the WEDC.

MILWAUKEE, WI - We do a deep dive into Donald Trump's latest sabotage of the Affordable Care Act and its political implications for the 2018 election.

We look at Trump's new arch-conservative Supreme Court nominee and how Democrats are turning to healthcare as the center of their strategy to defeat his appointment.

We welcome Citizen Action Organizing Cooperative member and Milwaukee County Board Supervisor, Sylvia Ortiz-Velez, to talk about her resolution opposing Trump's zero tolerance immigration policy.

We close by discussing WEDC failure to collect a $1.1 million loan from a jailed De Pere businessman convicted of bank fraud and Foxconn's sleazy effort to lower wage requirements for the jobs it has promised to create with our public money.
