

Citizen Action panel discusses the sham FBI investigation into SCOTUS nominee Brett Kavanaugh, the $15 movement's victory this week at Amazon, Leah Vukmir's extreme attacks on Medicare, and more.

STATEWIDE - We discuss the sham FBI investigation into the credible charges of sexual assault leveled against SCOTUS nominee Brett Kavanaugh, and predict the likely outcomes of the shameful Senate confirmation process and the electoral fallout from Donald Trump's latest degrading remarks.

We also talk about the Fight for $15 movement's victory this week at Amazon, and the strike in Milwaukee that resulted in 23 arrests outside a McDonald's. Robert reviews the week's healthcare news, including Assembly Speaker Robin Vos's stubborn "No way" declaration on accepting federal Medicaid money and Leah Vukmir's extreme attacks on Medicare for All.

Finally, we welcome Aaron Matteson, a Citizen Action Co-op member and candidate for Assembly District 22.
