MADISON - We just posted our "Influence Peddler of the Month," and this month it goes to the Wisconsin Insurance Alliance, which has spent $3.4 million since 2011 to push through a raft of anti-consumer laws, as you'll see here:

Earlier this week, we posted an item on the anti-protest bill aimed at pipeline demonstrators. It's a bill that's supported both by Wisconsin Manufacturers & Commerce and by the AFL-CIO of Wisconsin:

Next week, on Wed night, I'm giving a talk in Hartford on "Why We Need to Ban Gerrymandering in Wisconsin." It's at 6:00 p.m. at the Jack Russell Memorial Library, 100 Park Avenue. So if you're in the area, please come.

And then on Saturday, I'll be speaking at the big statewide Fair Maps for Wisconsin Summit in Marshfield, which I hope you'll also be able to attend. It's at the Hotel Marshfield, and for more information on it, please go here:

This movement to ban gerrymandering is one of the most exciting grassroots efforts under way in Wisconsin right now, and we're thrilled to play our part in it.

I'm looking forward to seeing you next week.

P.S. If you support our work for fair voting maps, and for exposing the influence peddlers, please send us a tax-deductible gift by clicking here . Thanks!
