

Sen. Tammy Baldwin: My thoughts on the Wisconsin election results

Written by Tammy Baldwin, Senator from Wisconsin
Tuesday, 14 April 2020 10:39 -

The Wisconsin GOP tried to steal an election, but last night, we found out they lost. Please sign my petition demanding universal vote-by-mail be included in the next coronavirus relief bill.

WASHINGTON, DC - Last week, the Wisconsin GOP tried to steal a seat on the state's Supreme Court by refusing to move our election or provide safe voting options during this unprecedented pandemic.

Last night, we found out they lost.

No one should have been forced to choose between their safety and their right to vote — and far too many Wisconsinites were unable to participate in this election. It was a disgraceful act of

Sen. Tammy Baldwin: My thoughts on the Wisconsin election results

Written by Tammy Baldwin, Senator from Wisconsin
Tuesday, 14 April 2020 10:39 -

voter suppression on the part of Republicans.

Even in the face of these unprecedented circumstances, Judge Jill Karofsky won a well-deserved seat on the Wisconsin Supreme Court. I have no doubt she will work to make sure everyone can participate in our elections moving forward. But we must join her in that fight.

Republicans will continue their dangerous voter suppression tactics unless we act, and the best way for us to stop them is to demand universal vote-by-mail.

That's why I'm asking you to sign my petition demanding universal vote-by-mail be included in the next coronavirus relief bill to avoid this sort of disaster from happening again. We must do better in November.

Thank you to the Wisconsinites who showed their resiliency in last week's election. We won't forget you.

Stay safe and healthy.

— Tammy