

Amanda Stuck Honors Courage and Commitment of the National Guard

Written by Amanda Stuck Press

Thursday, 21 May 2020 13:15 - Last Updated Saturday, 23 May 2020 13:54

<http://newiproggressive.com/images/stories/S5/wi-national-guard-troops2-s5.jpg>

Trump plans to end the deployments of more than 40,000 National Guard members a day before thousands would become eligible for federal benefits. We owe them more.

APPLETON, WI - The U.S. Marine Corps lists three principal values: honor, courage and commitment. Mike Gallagher is a former Marine. While I can't speak to his honor or courage, I must say, judging from his silence on the Republican plan to stiff the National Guard, I have doubts about his commitment to his comrades in arms.

Let me explain.

Across the country, the National Guard has been called into service against COVID-19. The Guard has operated as poll workers , delivered protective equipment where it's needed , distributed meals

, assisted hospitals with emergency care

. Guardsmen and women have gone above and beyond the call of duty.

Thursday, 21 May 2020 13:15 - Last Updated Saturday, 23 May 2020 13:54

