

DPW Announces Cassi Fenili as Executive Director

Written by WisDems Press
Wednesday, 10 January 2024 17:50 -

MADISON, Wis. — Today, Democratic Party of Wisconsin Chair Ben Wikler announced the hiring of Cassi Fenili as Executive Director for the 2024 election cycle. Fenili succeeds Devin Remiker, recently appointed as Senior Advisor to President Biden’s reelection campaign in Wisconsin.

A Wisconsin native and political veteran, Fenili has served as Senior Advisor to the Democratic Party of Wisconsin since April 2023. Fenili, who managed Gov. Tony Evers successful reelection campaign, will continue to serve as Campaign Manager for the Governor’s campaign committee while taking on this new role with the party. She has served in multiple roles with the Democratic Party of Wisconsin throughout her career, including as a Senior Advisor during Gov. Evers’ successful Save the Veto partnership with the Party in 2020.

“With another enormously consequential election ahead of us this November, Cassi Fenili is the right person at the right time to help lead us to victory,” said Democratic Party of Wisconsin Chair Ben Wikler.

“Cassi was instrumental to Governor Evers’ historic reelection victory in 2022, and has deep experience working to elect Democrats across Wisconsin up and down the ballot. Cassi knows what it takes to win in Wisconsin, and we’re thrilled to have her joining us as Executive Director.”

“Cassi Fenili is a proven leader who knows how to win up and down the ballot here in Wisconsin,” said Senator Tammy Baldwin. “With so much at stake, Democrats across the state should be confident knowing that Cassi and the Democratic Party of Wisconsin are ready to stand up for our values and fight for a better future.”

“Cassi knows how to lead organizations, build strong teams, and deliver victories for Democrats in Wisconsin – I’ve seen it firsthand and I wouldn’t be in office today without her skill,” said Governor Tony Evers. “I’m proud to see her taking on this responsibility, in addition to continuing to lead my campaign. I’m confident that Cassi, Chairman Ben Wikler, and the entire Democratic Party of Wisconsin team will re-elect President Biden and Senator Tammy Baldwin, send more Democrats to the state legislature, and deliver crucial victories in local races across the state in 2024.”