Long time Congressman supports Shankland in western Wisconsin race.

STEVENS POINT, Wis - Today, Katrina Shankland announced she's earned the endorsement of former Congressman Dave Obey (WI-07) in her bid for Wisconsin's 3rd Congressional District.

"Katrina Shankland is an effective leader who has proven she can deliver results for her community and state. She can be counted on to go the extra mile to solve political problems, not create them.

I know the Congress and I know Katrina. She will bring the right kind of medicine to actually make the Congress work again. That's why I'm proud to support Katrina Shankland for Congress. I encourage you to join her efforts — you'll be glad you did," said former Congressman Obey.

"Congressman Dave Obey's legacy of service in Congress has touched the lives of people across Wisconsin. He has been instrumental in ensuring government truly worked for us, achieving landmark investments in infrastructure, health care, and education. As our pro-worker, pro-democracy campaign continues to grow, I'm proud to be endorsed by a member of Congress best known for delivering meaningful results for working families and seniors — because I'll do the same," said Katrina Shankland.

The endorsement of former Congressman Dave Obey adds to the growing list of elected officials and labor endorsements for Shankland's campaign. Click here for a full list of endorsements.

Recent polling conducted by Blueprint Polling shows Katrina Shankland is the only Democrat running for Congress who beats Van Orden in the General Election this November.
