State Democrats call out Trump's broken promises as the President officially kicks off re-election bid in Florida Tuesday.

MADISON - Ahead of President Trump's re-election kick off rally in Orlando, Florida, the Democratic Party of Wisconsin held a press call Monday to make the case that Wisconsin voters will hold Trump accountable in 2020 for his failures and broken promises on health care and the economy.

The following are excerpts from Democratic Party of Wisconsin Chair Ben Wikler's remarks:
