

Wisconsinites Slam Trump for Attacks on ACA, People with Pre-Existing Conditions

Written by WisDems Press, Philip Shulman

Monday, 28 September 2020 22:09 - Last Updated Wednesday, 30 September 2020 15:31

OB/GYN and 88th Assembly District Candidate Dr. Kristen Lyerly and Wisconsinites with pre-existing conditions interviewed by press ahead of presidential debate.

WISCONSIN -- Tuesday, OB/GYN and Candidate for Wisconsin's 88th State Assembly District Dr. Kristen Lyerly, Lisa Lind, who has a pre-existing condition, and Jennifer Neary, whose family depends on protections for pre-existing conditions, will hold a video press conference telling their stories and what it would mean if Trump gets his way in repealing the ACA.

Access to quality and affordable health care is at the top of Wisconsinites' minds as the election approaches and Trump has ruthlessly undermined the health care system and put 2.4 million Wisconsinites with pre-existing conditions at risk. The cruelty and chaos of Trump is more apparent than ever as he tries to strip away these protections in the middle of a pandemic.

WHAT: A video press call with Wisconsinites with pre-existing conditions ahead of presidential debate.

WHO: Dr. Kristen Lyerly, OB/GYN and Candidate for Wisconsin's 88th State Assembly District

Lisa Lind, Wisconsinite that relies on the ACA

Jennifer Neary, Wisconsinite that relies on the ACA

WHEN: TOMORROW, September 29, 3:15 PM CT

WHERE: By press invitation only.