New Priorities USA ad features how Kampala Harris will bring her years of experience in California and in the Senate to help build the most progressive administration in history.

Washington, DC — In Kamala Harris, Joe Biden has chosen a historic running mate. A Biden-Harris administration will work every single day to undo the damage done by Donald Trump and build our country back up better than it was before. An unwavering advocate for justice, Kamala Harris will always put the American people before politics.

A new ad from Priorities USA Action, " Her Movement ," highlights the unwavering integrity of our next Vice President. Kamala Harris will bring her years of experience in California and in the Senate to build the most progressive administration in history with Joe Biden. With Joe Biden and Kamala Harris in the White House, Americans will see affordable health care expanded, the middle class strengthened, and justice for all.

Joe Biden and Kamala Harris have unparalleled records as champions for the American people. The many accomplishments of Biden and Harris stand in stark contrast to the Trump-Pence administration's failed leadership and inability to keep our country safe.

Priorities USA has committed over $200 million to ensure that Joe Biden and Kamala Harris are in the White House next year.

"Joe Biden's selection of Kamala Harris recognizes the historic moment our country is in and meets it. A Biden-Harris administration means better health care, higher wages, and a more just society for everyone. The only plan Donald Trump has for our country is more chaos and division," said Jenn Stowe, Deputy Executive Director of Priorities USA. "Kamala Harris embodies the best of America. Priorities could not be more proud to support this outstanding ticket."
