

“A Calling” Battleground Wisconsin Podcast

Written by Citizen Action of Wisconsin, Robert Kraig

Thursday, 20 November 2014 18:30 - Last Updated Thursday, 20 November 2014 18:51

MADISON - Our panel responds to news Scott Walker is seriously considering running for president, if he is “called.” We preview the upcoming state budget, including the Walker Administration’s crazy quilt of tax increases to fill the DOT’s deficit.

We kick around Assembly Speaker Robin Vos’ threat to withhold state support to the proposed Milwaukee sports arena because Buck’s owner Mark Lasry greeted President Barack Obama when he visited in Milwaukee.

We also discuss 2 proactive campaigns Wisconsin progressives should invest in to begin to rebuild democracy in Wisconsin.

Listen to our podcast Here.

Links:

Gov. Walker waiting for calling as he mulls 2016 run. If he's going to be a GOP contender, "I have to feel like it's a calling"

Scott Walker says he's seriously weighing presidential bid

Paul Ryan named chairman of House Ways and Means Committee

New taxes, higher fees proposed by state transportation department.

Critics of transportation budget pounce on higher taxes and fees.

MJS Editorial: Transportation proposal for Wisconsin needs thorough vetting

Walker donor one of four finalists to develop Hill Farms property in Madison

Robin Vos' warnings to new Bucks owners raise questions

States Seek Immunity from SCOTUS Ruling on Health Subsidies

“A Calling” Battleground Wisconsin Podcast

Written by Citizen Action of Wisconsin, Robert Kraig

Thursday, 20 November 2014 18:30 - Last Updated Thursday, 20 November 2014 18:51

Citizen Action of Wisconsin in the news:

-

Green Bay Press Gazette \(November 14, 2014\) Health care marketplace enrollment begins Saturday

-

Wausau Daily Herald \(November 14, 2014\) The way forward on BadgerCare expansion

-

The Mic 92.1 Madison \(November 13, 2014\) Citizen Action's Robert Kraig on What Referendum Victories Mean

-

Wisconsin Gazette \(November 13, 2014\) Republicans expand majorities in Madison