MILWAUKEE - This weeks podcast was taped moments after the critical U.S. Supreme Court decision upholding a key affordability provision of the health care law. This week we reflect this landmark ruling from the high court. We also discuss Governor Walker's presidential ambitions when it comes to guns, flags and a woman's right to not carry to full term in cases of rape and incest. We also delve into the lessons of Charleston, and a merger of two Wisconsin progressive organizations. And finally, we chat about launching a campaign to install Dr. Robert Kraig as the new CEO of WEDC and, of course, engage in witty banter around all the great things to do in Milwaukee.
