

Become Bruce the Spruce

Written by Neville Public Museum
Wednesday, 19 November 2014 18:04 -

GREEN BAY - Share the holiday magic by bringing Green Bay's beloved Bruce the Spruce to life!

Bruce, the talking Christmas tree, was a central figure in the H.C. Prange holiday display in downtown Green Bay. Years ago, Bruce packed up his roots and moved across the river to continue the tradition at the Neville Public Museum.

Volunteers will adopt the character of Bruce, a naïve spruce tree who lives at the North Pole. They will interact with visitors and tell of Bruce's adventures with Santa Claus. Training will be provided.

Many opportunities available! Select a date that fits your schedule:

- November 22, 23, or 30 from 12:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.
- December 6, 7, 13, or 21 from 12:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

To volunteer, please contact:

Kirsten Smith, Education Specialist

Neville Public Museum

Become Bruce the Spruce

Written by Neville Public Museum
Wednesday, 19 November 2014 18:04 -

(920) 448-7851

Smith_KA@co.brown.wi.us