

To the Wis. Supreme Court We Go

Posted on Apr 02, Posted by Wisconsin Democracy Campaign, Matt Rothschild Category Wisconsin

MADISON - Yesterday, we joined with other pro-democracy groups in filing a brief at the Wisconsin Supreme Court to oppose the latest push to curtail the right of Wisconsinites to vote. Here's what I posted on this:

Our Brief to Defend Voting Rights at the Wisconsin Supreme Court

The person asking the Wisconsin Supreme Court to interfere with our voting rights is the same Jere Fabick who prevailed earlier this week on Evers's mask mandate. And it just so happens that Justice Rebecca Bradley got a big check from Fabick when she was running for a seat on the bench, as we explain here:

Also this week, my colleague Cely Flores posted a strong piece praising Gov. Evers for proposing to give undocumented students in-state tuition:

Governor's Budget Offers Undocumented Students A Brighter Future

Cely's articles, by the way, are now being reprinted by La Comunidad and by Madison Vibra, which we're thrilled about!

Other staff members have been busy tracking the money in the State Superintendent's race. Here's what they put together:

Please remember to vote on April 6. If you are voting absentee, you can go here to track your absentee ballot and find your local options for returning your ballot before Election Day.

And I hope you'll be able to enjoy the warm weather this weekend.

Best,
