

Temporary Closure of Three Green Bay Downtown Bridges

Written by Green Bay Mayor's Office Press
Friday, 15 April 2022 14:28 -

Bridges to close for annual spring cleaning, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday.

GREEN BAY, WI - The Green Bay Public Works Department is announcing the temporary closure of the three downtown bridges crossing the Fox River for annual spring-cleaning activities.

Traffic Impacts and Detours

Donald A. Tilleman Memorial Bridge (Mason Street over the Fox River)

Tuesday, April 19. Closed 6:00 a.m. Open 3:00 p.m.

Closed east of the Fox River on East Mason Street at South Monroe Avenue.

Closed west of the Fox River on West Mason Street at South Ashland Avenue.

Detour is South Ashland Avenue, Walnut Street, and South Monroe Avenue.

Bart Starr Memorial Bridge (Walnut Street over the Fox River)

Wednesday, April 20. Closed 6:00 a.m. Open 3:00 p.m.

Closed east of the Fox River on East Walnut Street at Washington Street.

Closed west of the Fox River on West Walnut Street at Broadway.

Detour is North Broadway, Dousman Street, Main Street, and North Monroe Avenue.

Ray Nitschke Memorial Bridge (Dousman Street and Main Street over the Fox River)

Temporary Closure of Three Green Bay Downtown Bridges

Written by Green Bay Mayor's Office Press

Friday, 15 April 2022 14:28 -

Friday, April 22. Closed 3:00 a.m. Open 2:00 p.m.

Closed east of the Fox River on Main Street at North Washington Street.

Closed west of the Fox River on Dousman Street at North Broadway.

Detour is North Broadway, East Walnut Street, and North Monroe Avenue.

Access to residences and businesses will be maintained. All closures, detours, and work operations are weather dependent and subject to change. Motorists should anticipate backups, use caution while driving through the work zone, and are encouraged to find alternate routes.