MADISON — Gov. Tony Evers announced Monday his appointment of Clifford Burdon to serve as Marquette County District Attorney. The appointment fills a vacancy created by former District Attorney Brian J. Juech's resignation. Burdon will serve for the remainder of the unexpired term that ends January 2025.

"Clifford Burdon brings experience and continuity to the Marquette County District Attorney's Office," said Gov. Evers. "He will serve the people of Marquette County well as their next district attorney."

Burdon is currently the Assistant District Attorney in the Marquette County District Attorney's Office and has been a prosecutor for more than a decade, previously working in the Juneau, Fond du Lac, and Columbia County District Attorney Offices. Prior to his current role and earlier in his career, Burdon was a criminal defense attorney. Over his career as a prosecutor and defense attorney, he has handled various criminal matters and dozens of jury trials.

"Governor Evers has made an excellent choice in appointing Cliff Burdon as Marquette County District Attorney," said Marquette County Sheriff Joseph Konrath. "Mr. Burdon is an intelligent and experienced prosecutor. Our Sheriff's Office looks forward to working with our new District Attorney to ensure public safety while treating everyone with dignity and respect."

Burdon is active in professional and community organizations, having served as vice president of the Columbia County Bar Association in 2011 and 2018, and volunteered with the Pardeeville Watermelon Festival for many years. He will be relocating to Marquette County to serve in this role.
