New appointee will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Angeline Winton.

MADISON - Gov. Tony Evers announced Tuesday that he is seeking applications for appointment as Washburn County District Attorney.

The new appointee will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Washburn County District Attorney, Angeline Winton, whose resignation was effective August 19, 2019. The new appointee will serve out the remainder of the unexpired term that ends January 2021.

To apply, please email a completed application form and supporting materials to govDAapp@wisconsin.gov. Applications must be submitted by September 9, 2019.

The District Attorney application form is available on the “Apply to Serve” page of the Governor’s website: www.evers.wi.gov.

For questions about the appointments process, please contact the Governor’s Office of Legal Counsel at (608) 266-1212.
