Legislative Republicans continue supporting plans to dismantle Governor Evers' efforts to slow the spread of COVID-19, even while Wisconsin is experiencing a spike in cases, hospitalizations and deaths.

MADISON - Halloween is typically a time we enjoy spooky things. We find ways to get scared, whether it's a haunted corn maze or horror flick. This year, however, it seems like we're living in a scary movie with no clear happy ending in sight. What's even scarier is we don't have the leadership to help us through this horrific time.

In the beginning of the year, we watched COVID-19's rampage through countries like China and Italy. In America, the President downplayed the seriousness of this crisis, predicting we wouldn't be as affected here.
