

Candidates Rally Against GOP Obstruction of Critical PFAS Funding

Written by Jamie Wall Press
Monday, 29 April 2024 08:27

<http://newiproggressive.com/images/stories/S5/pfas-contamination-test-s450.jpg>

State Senate candidates Jamie Wall and Andi Rich will be joined in Green Bay on Monday by Joint Finance Committee member Sen. LaTonya Johnson and State Rep. Lori Palmeri to speak out on the obstruction of $125 million in already-approved funding.

MADISON, Wis. — TODAY, State Senate candidates Jamie Wall and Andi Rich will be joined in Green Bay by Joint Finance Committee member Sen. LaTonya Johnson and State Rep. Lori Palmeri to speak out on the obstruction of $125 million in already-approved funding to address PFAS contamination by Sen. Eric Wimberger and Republicans on the Joint Finance Committee.

Jamie, Andi and Sen. Johnson will speak out as part of a statewide tour of events by Wisconsin Democrats to highlight Republican obstruction and inaction on critical priorities, including obstructing funding for clean water and opioid treatment, closure of UW Platteville's Richland campus

Candidates Rally Against GOP Obstruction of Critical PFAS Funding

Written by Jamie Wall Press
Monday, 29 April 2024 08:27

, and undercutting new statewide reading curricula

. As part of this statewide tour, Wisconsin Democrats will rally in Green Bay, Eau Claire, Madison and Milwaukee.

WHAT: Press conference on GOP obstruction of PFAS funding

WHO: State Senate candidates Jamie Wall and Andi Rich; State Senator LaTonya Johnson; State Rep. Lori Palmeri

WHEN: Monday, April 29 at 10 AM

WHERE: I (Heart) GB Sign, CityDeck, 301 N Washington St, Green Bay, WI 54301

Green Bay businessman Jamie Wall is a candidate in Senate District 30, an open seat centered in Green Bay. Marinette small business owner Andi Rich is a candidate in Senate District 12, running against Sen. Mary Felzkowski, a member of the Joint Finance Committee.