

Wis Democracy Campaign - Primary Messages

Written by Matt Rothschild, Wisconsin Democracy Campaign
Friday, 12 August 2022 18:17 - Last Updated Saturday, 13 August 2022 08:32

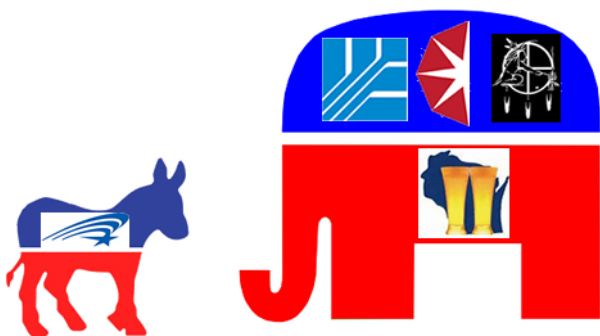

MADISON - The Aug. 9 primaries delivered several messages, including Speaker Vos calling Michael Gableman “an embarrassment to our state.” That was rich! I tried to sort it all out here:

The Messages of August 9

In the arena of money in politics, there were also mixed messages.

On the one hand, Republicans are the main beneficiaries of the change they made to our campaign finance law that allows political parties and campaign committees to accept donations from corporations, as this posting notes:

GOP Collects 3x More Than Dems in Corporate Contributions

But on the other hand, our research team discovered that the Democratic Party of Wisconsin is playing the money game much better than its counterpart:

Wis Democracy Campaign - Primary Messages

Written by Matt Rothschild, Wisconsin Democracy Campaign
Friday, 12 August 2022 18:17 - Last Updated Saturday, 13 August 2022 08:32

New Debate Highlights Proposed Changes to Wisconsin Republican Party whether campaign for

Gov. Tony Evers' plan to hold legislative session in virtual format, Sept. 10, 11 and 13, Wisconsin in 2023.