MADISON - I hope you had a nice holiday!

It's been two years now since the Jan. 6 insurrection and coup attempt, and still we've had no accountability for Donald Trump and no accountability for his accomplices here in Wisconsin.

I'm fed up with the slow pace by Merrick Garland, and by the unwillingness, at least so far, of Wisconsin prosecutors to go after Ron Johnson and the 10 false electors. So I wrote this piece:

If you're concerned about accountability for Trump and the leaders of this criminal conspiracy nationally, join a virtual rally in D.C. tomorrow, Friday, at 11:00AM CT/Noon ET in observance of the two-year mark since the attack on the U.S. Capitol. January 6 is a day to remind us we must continue working to protect and defend our democracy.

The rally is sponsored by the Not Above the Law Coalition and Declaration for American Democracy with special guests Martin Luther King III, Arndrea Waters King, Congressman John Sarbanes, and tentatively Congressman Jamie Raskin. Here's how you can join:
