Walker tries to re-brand himself heading into the 2018 election, AFSCME Council 32's Mike Horecki to talk about efforts to close Lincoln Hills, and more...

STATEWIDE - Our panel reviews Gov. Walker's State of the State (SOS) address which reveals a massive re-branding effort heading into the 2018 election. Robert analyzes Walker's 11th hour conversion on health care designed to address his biggest electoral vulnerability.

We welcome AFSCME Council 32's Mike Horecki to talk about Walker's belated effort to close Lincoln Hills after 7 years of pressure from workers and advocates to address the destructive impact of his policies. Health Care Co-op Organizer Katie Dunn joins us to promote this Saturday's Healthcare Jeopardy forum with Democratic candidates for Governor in Milwaukee. We close with Rebecca educating us about a police shooting in Racine that has the community organized and searching for answers.
