MADISON, Wis. — In a recent appearance on WVCY-TV30, Dan Kelly came clean on his stark lack of experience as a criminal prosecutor or trial court judge, admitting to viewers that “I’ve never convicted anyone.”

“Dan Kelly has a stunning lack of experience with the criminal justice system he would be responsible for leading on the Wisconsin Supreme Court,” said Democratic Party of Wisconsin Communications Director Joe Oslund

. “Judge Janet served the people of Wisconsin for 25 years as an Assistant District Attorney, and has nearly a decade of experience as a circuit court judge. Dan Kelly was appointed to the Supreme Court by Scott Walker as a reward for years of service to the extreme right, including defending Walker’s gerrymandered maps and guiding the Wisconsin Institute for Law & Liberty’s litigation on behalf of wealthy special interests. Dan Kelly fundamentally lacks the experience required to put people and the law above politics and extreme special interests.”
