MADISON, Wis. — On June 10 and 11, the Democratic Party of Wisconsin will host its 2023 State Convention at the Radisson Hotel & Conference Center in Green Bay, Wisconsin. Democrats from across Wisconsin will come together to hear from Democratic officeholders, attend trainings and caucuses, and conduct official party business, including electing new party officers.

Convention attendees will hear from Senator Tammy Baldwin, Governor Tony Evers, Lieutenant Governor Sara Rodriguez, Attorney General Josh Kaul, and other elected officials from across Wisconsin.

The theme of this year's convention is Working For Wisconsin, highlighting the work of Senator Tammy Baldwin and Democrats across the state to support working families—fighting for affordable health care, strengthening Made in Wisconsin jobs, and protecting our freedoms.
