WISCONSIN -- On Wednesday, October 28, the Democratic Party of Wisconsin's Get Out The Vote bus tour will make a stop in Wausau with Congressional Candidate Tricia Zunker, Mayor Katie Rosenberg, and State Assembly Candidate Jeff Johnson.

At the event, the leaders will talk about what is at stake for Wausau in this election including access to health care and the economy. They will also encourage people to make a plan to cast their ballot now that early in-person voting is underway in Wisconsin.

Earlier in the day, the bus tour will also make stops at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh and University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point to highlight the stakes of this election for young voters and encourage them to make their plan to vote early.
