Dr. Biden coming to Green Bay Friday.

MADISON, Wis. — Ahead of Dr. Jill Biden’s visit to Green Bay today to highlight the Biden-Harris Administration’s investments in education and job training programs, Democratic Party of Wisconsin Executive Director Cassi Fenili released the following statement:

“We’re excited to once again welcome Dr. Jill Biden back to Wisconsin. Thanks to the efforts of the Biden-Harris Administration, in partnership with Governor Evers, we’re investing in common-sense policies like career-connected learning that will grow our economy and strengthen our workforce for decades to come. We are thrilled to welcome the First Lady back to Wisconsin today to highlight the work the Biden-Harris Administration is doing to set young Wisconsinites up for success.”
