

WI Health Advocacy Groups To Hold Tele-Presser On Court Decision

Written by GBP Staff

Thursday, 21 June 2012 14:49 -

MADISON - Wisconsin health advocacy groups are planning to hold a tele-press conference within hours of the Supreme Court releasing its decision on health reform later this month. The law is officially known as the Affordable Care Act, and is sometimes referred to as ObamaCare.

- WHO: Representatives from the Wisconsin Alliance for Women's Health, Wisconsin Alliance for Retired Americans, Wisconsin Council on Children and Families, and Know Your Care Wisconsin.
- WHAT: Tele-press conference to discuss impact of Supreme Court decision on Wisconsin citizens.
- WHEN: 1pm the day the Court decision is released (we will confirm time that day)
- WHERE: Call-in information will be provided the day of the decision.

For more about the health reform law, visit www.healthcare.gov. Some of its impact in Wisconsin can be found at www.healthcare.gov/law/resources/wi.html

WW